Wayne becomes concerned about his family's safety and invents a security system for their protection. F.R.A.N. (Petrea Burchard), the Felon Repeller and Accident Neutralizer takes her duties very seriously and involves herself in every facet of the household. Diane is wary of the overprotective computer, not realizing that F.R.A.N. has developed a mind of her own. When Wayne decides to pull the plug, F.R.A.N. holds the Szalinskis under "house arrest." Wayne and his family try to stop F.R.A.N. before it's too late.

NOTES

I have a tape with KIMA programming on it from this evening. Last few minutes of the 60 Minutes broadcast, all of "Arthur," the CBS Sunday Night News, Entertainment Tonight and the sign-off, complete with national anthem and the transmitter shut off. Interesting footage from that tape, lots of local ads.

Retro: This Week in TV Guide, October 4, 1980 - MN State Edition

This week, meet one of the stars of Lou Grant, watch the big movies coming to TV, find out what the ratings system really means, read about a channel that plans nothing but news, and more!

<http://www.itsabouttv.com/2014/10/th...er-4-1980.html>

As always your comments, positive as well as negative, are most welcome.

This week's listing is from Friday, October 10. I'm concentrating on the stations in MSP and Duluth, and one of the first things I notice is that Channel 2 has really expanded their broadcasting schedule from the days of the early '60s. Several of the channels have different call letters than in the past, and a couple even have new affiliations. Question: is the programming any better?

Fun to see what ABC stations had scheduled for AFTER Game 3 of the NLCS. My guess is none of the after game programs aired on ABC as Game 3 of the 1980 NLCS went 11 innings and took 3:22 to play. If game 3 started right at 2 PM CT that meant it was almost 5:30 before the game ended and my guess is ABC kept till then and just went to World News Tonight at the scheduled time. FWIW I still remember not being home that night. My dad was coaching High School Football that season and despite being only in the 3rd grade I went to all our games that year and we were playing on this night.

I believe so; back then, JBC -- the government-run Jamaican Broadcasting Corporation -- had the only TV and radio stations in Jamaica.

In the case of U.S. shows? I think videotapes flown in from Miami were the only way to get their fix; same with MTV, HBO, ESPN, etc. as far as cable was concerned.

Stayed in a hotel in Ocho Rios in 2003...tvJ was the only local channel, along with some US affiliates. Remembered the televised spelling bee in the afternoon on tvJ guessing it was a special event. All the participants were in their school uniforms. ALL school age kids wore uniforms during the school day.

ALL school age kids wore uniforms during the school day.

Something completely normal in many countries, like mine (Argentina).

And I wish it were normal here, as well.

"Runaway." (1984) In this advanced society, most homes have robots that perform everyday menial duties. Every so often, one malfunctions, and Sgt. Jack Ramsay (Tom Selleck), an expert in rogue machines, must deal with it. When he and his new partner, Karen Thompson (Cynthia Rhodes), investigate a robot-involved homicide, they discover strange computer chips. Rather than a malfunction, someone is programming the robots to kill. The police must find whoever is behind the murder before more harm is done.

Had to look at a map. I'm guessing Kingman is at least 200 miles from Phoenix. Did the Phoenix stations daisy-chain the signals through a translator network, or did they have to resort to a microwave feed?

Back in 1980, I'd say they had a really good translator line-up. If you go to Kingman today, there may still be some translator-special UHF antennas hanging out on a few roofs. Ideal if you need a high gain antenna to DX your local trunked public-safety freqs!

Also Kingman is much closer to Vegas than Phoenix (170 miles to South Mountain and about 75 miles to Black Mountain (Vegas's main tower farm))

Having lived briefly in Kingman in the early 80's, that lineup sounds about right. Those translators were very, very hard to receive cleanly, if at all. An 8 Bay Bowtie with an amp would not clean up many of the stations. And there were plenty of outages, particularly with the Phoenix stations. Today, most of the translators that serve Mohave County, including Kingman, are run and owned by The Mohave County Board of Supervisors.

How come since there was a NFL strike in 1982 that the Falcons football coach possibly talking about the strike and NFL '82 were still on the air?

All through the 1980s I watched the Auburn,Tennessee and Florida football shows on Sunday night on WATL

Although this is not in the listings, I believe this was the night when the first all night network newscast CBS News Nightwatch debuted and according to past listings on the forum WAGA aired the show.

This was the last day of the baseball season, and I *think* NBC had a baseball game also, since there was no football.

Don't know if NBC carried a baseball game on that Sunday, although I think they did for other weeks during the early part of the NFL strike(as they also did in 1987)

For the record, ABC had the rights in those days to any lastday of the baseball season contests where a division title was on the line(as well as any Monday tiebreaker games).

The game on Oct. 3, 1982, involved the Milwaukee Brewers and Baltimore Orioles, who, by good fortune, just happened to be tied for first place and playing each other on the last day.

The Brewers won the game 10-2, with the team of Keith Jackson, Bob Uecker and Howard Cosell announcing.

and the alternate was the dodgers at the giants with joe morgan's famous HR knocking the dodgers out the playoffs

WAGA Ch. 5 (CBS)

3:30 TBA (the NFL was on strike)

The "TBA" was an NCAA Division III football game: Wittenberg vs. Baldwin-Wallace (who won 16-14).

Giving them something to do, CBS sent Pat Summerall and John Madden to call the game (with Pat O'Brien on the sidelines).

Meanwhile, NBC filled their temporary NFL-less void by giving us the CFL, even deploying Dick Enberg and Don Criqui north of the border to some games. This was the first time we saw Canadian football on U.S. network television (then and now, it has always been on cable here).

7:30 Galaxy (wonder if this is The Hitchhiker's Guide To The Galaxy?)

Yes, it was. This is the second chapter (or "Fit," as Douglas Adams called it, taking a nod from Lewis Carroll).

Although this is not in the listings, I believe this was the night when the first all night network newscast CBS News Nightwatch debuted and according to past listings on the forum WAGA aired the show.

"The CBS Early Morning News" would have also premiered the next morning, replacing "Sunrise Semester" on those CBS affiliates that still carried it. That would mean that WAGA's 6AM airing of "Sunrise Semester" would have been the last show of the series.

The Falcons would have hosted the San Diego Chargers that day, and aired as the NBC early game on Ch. 11. Ch. 5's CBS game at 4 pm would have been the New York Giants at Dallas Cowboys.

Some pre-emptions in 1997!

WTAE pre-empted Real Friends and The City, while WEWS moved Real Friends to late night. Also find it kind of odd that WFMJ and WTOV aired Oprah and WTRF aired Live! as those shows seemed to air mostly on ABC stations (WTRF and WTOV can be explained as its shared market didn't have an ABC affiliate)

Looks familiar. I was living in a house in Pittsburgh that was not wired for cable at the time.

No listing in the Republic for KUSK Channel 7 Prescott? They had translators on Channel 27 in Phoenix (which became today's KAZT-CD 7.x/RF 36) and Channel 17 in Mesa (which signed off to make way for KPHO-DT 5.x) at that time.

Sorry there wasn't a listing for that station.

...Did KTVK seriously delay the Monday Night game?

During the winter months, Phoenix is two hours behind the East Coast (so a 9pm ET kickoff would be 7pm Phoenix time)

KOMO did, except when the Seahawks were playing

Only thing that looks out of place is Benny Hill showing at 12:30p on channel 21 TBN. Would be funny if that really was the case.

I guess I'm not used to the 9pm kickoffs they had back then... I thought of KOMO, that's why I said it.

That's probably Benny Hinn, the host of This is Your Day, a religious program that has aired for many years. He always does those Miracle Crusades.

and I think this is also a double post

Minor piece of mostly useless information: What's listed on WANE 15 at 10am as Jim and Tammy Bakker wasn't. The Bakker's had divorced four years earlier. The 1996 show was likely the horrendously bad "Jim J. and Tammy Faye" with Tammy and Jim J. Bullock of "Too Close for Comfort" fame.

Your information is very interesting! Thank you!

Regis and Kathie Lee aired at 2:30am in Fort Wayne?!?!? And wasn't cleared at all in South Bend, home of Regis' alma mater Notre Dame?

Today, Live with Kelly airs at 9am on WPTA and WBND.

Jim J. and Tammy Faye? I have NEVER heard of that talk show before. Must have been even more short-lived than Danny Bonaduce and Carnie Wilson!

KNDO Yakima got away with airing Live (not) with Regis & Kathie Lee at noon for many years. It was later moved to 9AM, but then delayed to 10AM once KNDO started airing the full three hours of Today in pattern. When KAPP took over the rights in 2003-04, they moved Live to 3:00PM! It is currently in the common 9AM slot now.

Over in Seattle, KSTW had Regis & Kathie Lee until about six months into the first season. That aired at noon I believe. In Sep 1989, KOMO took over the rights, moved it to the 9AM slot, and 27 years later, through several hosts, it has stayed in that timeslot.

I lived in southern Michigan, about 80 miles from Ft. Wayne. Interestingly there were no Ft. Wayne stations on my cable system.

There were some stations from as far away as Toledo and Grand Rapids though.

Please post listings for Saturday 1/6/1996 and Sunday 1/7/1996

Today, Live with Kelly airs at 9am on WPTA and WBND.

Actually Regis & Kathie Lee aired at 4 pm on WANE. It would have been delayed on this day due to the CBS Schoolbreak Special. According to listings I've seen, they did air it live when it first entered syndication in the late 80s but moved it to 4 pm at least by the early '90s.

Fort Wayne started getting it live when WANE dropped it (probably not long after these listings) and it moved to WPTA for one year I believe. It then moved to channel 33 for several years and moved back to channel 21 a few years ago.

The program also traces the crime boss's life with a visit to the scene of the St. Valentine's Day Massacre and to Capone's prison cell on Alcatraz. Host: Geraldo Rivera.

Preempts a repeat of the TV movie Something About Amelia.

Local news at just 5:00, 5:30 and 11:00pm on that day. Boy has weekdays changed so much since then at that market.

...and Geraldo found nothing in the vault! A waste of two hours!

Notice Jim and Tammy Faye on two different stations (5am on KXLY and 10am on KSKN). KSKN and KAYU seemed to carry a few televangelists in mid-mornings, with Robert Tilton (Success-n-Life) also on KSKN and Pat Robertson (700 Club) and Jimmy Swaggart on KAYU.

Also notice the triple run of Sesame Street (7am, 9am, and 4pm) on KSPS.

Preempts a repeat of the TV movie Something About Amelia.

Thanks! I meant to include that, but forgot.

Local news at just 5:00, 5:30 and 11:00pm on that day. Boy has weekdays changed so much since then at that market.

Yep. But morning and noon news started only a few years later, as did the current 5 pm local news/5:30 pm national news/6 pm local news format.

Notice Jim and Tammy Faye on two different stations (5am on KXLY and 10am on KSKN). KSKN and KAYU seemed to carry a few televangelists in mid-mornings, with Robert Tilton (Success-n-Life) also on KSKN and Pat Robertson (700 Club) and Jimmy Swaggart on KAYU.

Also notice the triple run of Sesame Street (7am, 9am, and 4pm) on KSPS.

Not long after, KSKN became bargain-basement television, with nearly wall-to-wall televangelists and home shopping before going dark temporarily dark in 1987.

...and Geraldo found nothing in the vault! A waste of two hours!

Absolutely. But it did relaunch Geraldo's career after.

Yep...his talk show started almost a year and half after this date--September 7, 1987

WJZ (ABC 13 Baltimore) - Kind of odd how WJZ was included but not the other two Baltimore VHF's. Did they have a better signal?

Even though I don't have an answer for this I can tell you it was the exact same thing in far western Maryland ( Cumberland ). WJZ & WBFF were on cable out there but not WMAR or WBAL.

Too bad you didn't go back ten years earlier when Fredericksburg had their own TV station called WHFV. WHFV was an NBC affiliate on channel 69 but they were only on the air from 1973, 1974 and some of 1975.

4 13 NFL Football

Return: The San Francisco 49ers meet the Miami Dolphins in an exhibition game in London. This is the third annual American Bowl. Sunday afternoon, yard work done, sprawled in an easy chair with cold drink in hand, watching pro football's finest battle it out on the gridiron-it's an American institution. But will it play in England? Scandinavia, maybe? Well, how about Asia? The NFL's efforts to increase interests (and TV revenues) have reached global proportions. Much of this expansion is due to an enthusiastic reception in London, where previous games have sold out easily and helped to launch hundreds of semipro teams. On Aug. 14, the league premieres in continental Europe when the Bears meet the Vikings in Sweden; and there is talk of games in Japan (or other Asian sites) as early as 1989. Closer to home, the NFL invades Canada (for the first time since '69) for an Aug. 18th Browns-Jets game in Montreal. Dick Enberg and Merlin Olsen report.

4 News

Two things on this schedule are already on their last legs:

Non-evangelical (Catholic, Lutheran, etc.) discussion shows and playlets like "Insight" and "With This Ring" (which was apparently produced in Detroit). They were already being driven out in many markets by televangelists; maybe thirty stations were airing "For Our Times", the last network religious program.

Sunday morning kids' programming. In case you wonder what "Steampipe Alley" was, it was WOR's version of "Double Dare". I saw it every Sunday as a kid, but had totally forgotten about it until today.

Not just Double Dare, but it also had celebrity guests and Looney Tunes cartoons. Probably one of the last local, over-the-air children's TV programs. Ranger Charlie & Rosco (on KSTW Tacoma/Seattle) was another example of a local children's TV show in the late 1980s/early 90s.

Speaking of Double Dare, notice WWOR aired the bad ripoff "Slime Time" at 8AM ET. Three students and one teacher from a school played in teams to win prizes, and yes, some got slimed. Only lasted 13 weeks before it was off the airwaves, never to be seen again (same with Treasure Mall).

You mean to tell me that WIHT/31 was only on the air from 8:30 am to 10 am? Kind of unusual for a 1988 TV listing. What's going on, here?

I think the rest of WIHT's day was used for subscription TV (In Home Theatre).

I think it was home shopping most of the day. Over-the air subscription TV was all but dead by 1988.

The next market is the Grand Rapids-Kalamazoo-Battle Creek market. This market was (and is) unusual for having two separate ABC affiliates. WZZM's stick is near Fremont (which allowed it to serve the southern portion of the Traverse City-Cadillac market as well) while WOTV's is near Hastings. Missing is WTLJ (54) and WLLA (64), both religious independents then and now.

This one is actually three different markets (Traverse City-Cadillac, Alpena, and Sault Ste. Marie ON), but Alpena was basically a submarket of Traverse City and Soo Ontario got its Americans from Traverse City-Cadillac (which have full-power satellites in the Eastern Upper Peninsula).

Last, but not least, is Marquette, which was still basically a submarket of Green Bay at this time. Notice that both commercial stations aired Wheel and Jeopardy! (and Oprah) at the same times! NBC programming was received on cable via WLUK from Green Bay, while WWTV/WWUP (CBS) and/or WBAY (ABC) were also seen in some areas.

I was in Marquette in '92. The last vestige of the three-channel universe I grew up in.

Watched ABC College Football on WLUC. Then the NBC Prime Time Lineup started on a delayed basis afterwards.

Were the full network lineups available on cable up there?

Don't know. Was staying with a family member who did not have cable.

Roof aerial and exactly 3 channels available.

KSD-TV/KSDK Channel 5 in St. Louis television schedules from 1976 to 1993

Hi there! My name's Sean! I'm 25 years old, and I've got autism. Even though I wasn't born until 1991, and I don't know if requests are allowed here, but if they are, since I live near St. Louis with my grandparents, and since NBC is my all time favorite television network, and since KSDK Channel 5 is the NBC television affiliate in St. Louis, and since I like the television shows that were originally aired on KSDK Channel 5 from January 1, 1976 (after "Saturday Night Live" premiered on NBC on October 11, 1975 when it was "NBC's Saturday Night" when KSDK Channel 5 was KSD-TV Channel 5) to December 31, 1993 (before both "Friends" and "ER" both premiered on NBC in September of 1994) while Johnny Carson and Jay Leno were hosting "The Tonight Show" on NBC (before anybody even heard of Jimmy Fallon), and I know there's St. Louis television schedules posted here, but I'm looking for just the KSD-TV Channel 5/KSDK Channel 5 television schedules from January 1, 1976 to December 31, 1993! If anybody can help me, thanks very much!

Sean

Thanks anabate123!

You're welcome sross1800!

I hope that Captain N and Super Mario World aired on KPLR Channed 11 so that Mario cartoons have aired on the same channel as The Lionhearts did in Saint Louis since KSDK pre-empted for the news. Please I hope Super Mario was shown on KPLR *fingers crossed*

Good question, Sean and a Great Memory too! I can hardly remember what I had for lunch, a couple hours ago!!!!!!

Well, KSDK cleared the program only for it's first run, after that, the news replaced it.

On what station in Saint Louis picked up the rest of NBC's saturday morning lineup during the fall 1991 TV season after KSDK started pre-empting it?

I currently work for WCAX. Great to see this old schedule! Kojak reruns leading into the 6pm news. Classic! Thanks for posting.

WETK Burlington is Ch. 33, not Ch. 32.

I'm very confused. I use to check the frequencies on Wikipedia. I don't understand the difference between the UHF number channel and the PSIP number channel.

How easy was it for Montreal residents to see Vermont stations OTA in the analog era, and vice versa?

Fairly easy...back in the day, especially south of downtown.

I do know Montreal stations (FM especially) still boom into northern Vermont. Given the FM signal strength, my guess is the digital TV signals from Montreal definitely can be picked up with rabbit ears at least several miles south of the border.

Running "Guiding Light" at 10AM/9C probably wouldn't be considered out of pattern, as CBS was feeding the show at that time for stations that wanted to air it then. I think most, if not all, of the CBS O&Os in the East were running GL at 10...the same stations run "Let's Make a Deal" at 10 now.

There are indeed a few oddities in some cases, and you have to wonder what the stations were thinking or what the logic was. It's obvious that some of the Mountain Time Zone affiliates were utilizing portions of the live East/Central feed either for convenience or it just happened to work out for whatever the stations were doing, schedule-wise.

GL was on a day delay if it ran at 10 am, I seem to recall.

CBS started a same-day 10/9C feed of GL in March of 2004; CBS started a same-day 9AM ET feed of GL starting at some point in 2006.

What about ABC and NBC? In Memphis, WHBQ when it was an ABC affiliate aired All My Children at 3pm after One Life to Live and General Hospital because they had a newscast at noon CT (AMC's normal time). WPTY/WATN also aired AMC at 3pm in its first few years with ABC. WMC aired Santa Barbara on a one-day delay at 11am.

In Oklahoma City, KWTW was. well, misread date as 1996, not 2006.

Wasn't that a normal schedule for Central Time stations?

...that, and the Pacific time zone, although Y&R's timeslot varied between 11 and 11:30am local time, depending on the market.

Prior to merging operations with KCAL in 2002, KCBS had a noon newscast for several years and at one point they and KCAL did the only noon news in the market. Once the two stations re-organized under new management (mostly coming from KCAL), the more-established (and viewed) KCAL noon news remained, and KCBS moved their midday news to 11am.

I find it odd that three of the Montana stations aired The Price is Right at 2PM weekdays. Usually the only time I see TPIR at 2PM is when March Madness games are going on...then Drew Carey airs in the LMAD slot on the west coast. These stations now air TPIR at 9AM MT.

Was "Hello Pea-Pickers" on ABC a new name for the daytime version of The Tennessee Ernie Ford show? He used the phrase "Bless Your Pea-Pickin' Hearts" quite often on his shows.

Also on CBS,there is a misprint in the newspaper,it is "Baileys of Balboa" not "Haileys of Balboa".

...how many other stations carried "Amos 'n Andy" this late? I know this was the year of the WCIU/26 Chicago controversial purchase of "Amos 'n Andy" after several years of running on WGN-TV/9; the WCIU controversy supposedly sparked the final move that got the series taken out of circulation by CBS in '66...

Was "Hello Pea-Pickers" on ABC a new name for the daytime version of The Tennessee Ernie Ford show? He used the phrase "Bless Your Pea-Pickin' Hearts" quite often on his shows.

It sure was. ABC hired Ford in 1962 for a daytime series from San Francisco after he left his nighttime "Ford Show" on NBC in 1961. He originally had a 5-year contract with ABC which would have run till 1967 but the ratings weren't great..The name of the show was changed to "Hello Peapickers" sometime in 1964..The show was canceled in April 1965. Ernie's announcer was Jim Lange in his first national TV exposure..Lange, of course was better known for the Dating Game which began a few months after "Hello Peapickers" was canceled.

...did WBZ chop 20 minutes out of the 71-minute NEVER GIVE A SUCKER AN EVEN BREAK to make it fit the hour time slot, or did they go to news sometime within the 6:30 half-hour?...and what's with the Philbin show listed? Was that a syndicated deal, and did it regularly pre-empt Carson in Boston?...

The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson was not, for whatever reason, broadcast by Boston NBC affiliate WBZ-TV (Channel 4), but was (as you may also see in this retro TV schedule) aired on the CBS affiliate of the time, WHDH-TV (Channel 5).

10pm- The Defenders

11pm- WHDH-TV News

11:30- Tonight Show

1am- Sign-Off

I never understood WBZ's failure to broadcast network TV's only late night talk show of that era, especially as WBZ was in the rather important New England media market (and that Boston TV stations could also be seen by viewers in southern New Hampshire and Rhode Island as well as in Greater Boston).

On the great "It's About TV" site, it's noted "Amos and Andy" played on a late night slot in Minneapolis up until the series was yanked.

Was "Hello Pea-Pickers" on ABC a new name for the daytime version of The Tennessee Ernie Ford show? He used the phrase "Bless Your Pea-Pickin' Hearts" quite often on his shows.

Also on CBS, there is a misprint in the newspaper, it is "Baileys of Balboa" not "Haileys of Balboa".

Yes, you are correct. Tennessee Ernie Ford had a few daytime television shows, in addition to his Ford Motor Company-sponsored variety show on NBC-TV known as The Ford Show (after the sponsor, not the star) from 1956-61. One was the local southern California daytime TV show called Hometown Jamboree (1948-60), later picked up in syndication; then The Tennessee Ernie Ford Show on ABC-TV from 1962-65, title later changed to Hello, Peapickers.

"Cool Hand Luke." (1967) When petty criminal Luke Jackson (Paul Newman) is sentenced to two years in a Florida prison farm, he doesn't play by the rules of either the sadistic warden (Strother Martin) or the yard's resident heavy, Dragline (George Kennedy), who ends up admiring the new guy's unbreakable will. Luke's bravado, even in the face of repeated stints in the prison's dreaded solitary confinement cell, "the box," make him a rebel hero to his fellow convicts and a thorn in the side of the prison officers.

Did non-primary ABC stations have to wait a week to air programming?

This schedule is about 2 1/2 years before my time, and someone who was alive at the time and worked at a local station would have a much better understanding of how everything worked. However, I think the following explanation is probably close to right.

Some secondary affiliates likely did not receive a network feed from the secondary network, and if the affiliate did clear a secondary network show at its network time, it was likely from an off-air feed from a station in an adjacent market. Even if a station did receive a clean feed from a secondary network, there's a good chance (depending on the station's equipment) the station couldn't receive its primary network and the secondary network at the same time. So if a station wanted to air a secondary network show on a delay that was fed at the same time the station was carrying its primary network, the secondary network would have to send the station a copy of the show that was to air delayed. Limited videotape capability probably also hampered some stations from doing delays on their own.

That being said, I've been told (but have never confirmed) that KTVO (Kirksville-Ottumwa) depended on over-the-air feeds (mainly from Des Moines) for all of its "live" network programming until the station became a primary ABC affiliate later in 1968. Even then, KTVO aired some afternoon ABC programs on delay so it could continue to air several CBS soaps in their normal time periods. The delayed ABC daytime shows aired at least a week late and were not in color.

So we're probably talking about a number of 16mm film prints (or kinnies of tape shows?) being sent to various stations for airing on a delayed basis.

At least in the case of KTVO, by 1968 the secondary ABC shows looked like they were on tape. But I was only about 8 yrs old at the time. I doubt though that they had color tape playback yet...KTVO might not have had color cameras in 1968. I wouldn't know, our house was B&W till '71.

I'm going to say the kinnie era was over by 1968. By then, stations were probably "bicycling" erasable tapes back and forth.

Delayed airings of ABC daytime shows on KTVO, WGEM, and KHQA were all in black and white. Most delayed airings of ABC prime-time shows on the same stations were in color (but there are some inconsistencies...perhaps TVG errors). KTVO's delayed broadcast of "The Lucy Show" (from CBS) Saturday at 6PM was apparently in black and white.

KTVO and WIRL were the only stations still doing all local news in black and white. WHBF's 6PM and 10PM newscasts were in color, but the station's 5-minute newscast at 7:55AM was apparently in black and white.

Looking at the Saturday and Sunday listings, KHQA apparently had the ability to do same-day CBS delays in color, but there is an inconsistency there, too (perhaps another TVG error).

In regard to the posted schedule, WQAD delayed "The Rat Patrol" to Saturday at 6PM (in color), and WIRL delayed "Felony Squad" to the same time, also in color. WQAD delayed "Felony Squad" to Thursday at 9PM (in color), and WIRL delayed "The Saga of Western Man" to the same time

(in color, and probably where WIRL normally ran "The Big Valley").

It's Christmas Eve when Father Rojas at the Old Mission Plaza Church in Los Angeles discovers that the statue of the Infant Jesus is stolen from the crib. KSTW Movie

"Christmas Eve." (1947) Matilda Reid (Ann Harding) is in danger of being declared senile at the urging of her nephew, Phillip (Reginald Denny). To keep him from controlling her estate, Matilda must find her three adopted sons, who left home long ago. One of them, Michael (George Brent), lives in New York, where he's incurred a $75,000 debt. Another, fugitive Mario (George Raft), is hiding in South America. The last, Jonathan (Randolph Scott), is a small-time cowboy. All three must come home to save Matilda's fortune.

Were they broadcasting in color at this time?

I understand Iceland was one of the last countries to switch to color.

And they used to shut down entirely during the country's midnight sun festival.

According to Wikipedia, they began broadcasting full-time in color around 1976.

That is not much later than in Western Europe BTW. The last live black and white broadcast in the Netherlands was Easter Mass from Rome somewhere in the early 1980's.

The tradition not to air in the Summer existed in the Netherlands from 1951 to 1960 as well. In Iceland they closed for Midsummer until 1986 or 1987.

Some of the Icelandic program titles don't show up on Google Search.

Your search - Fólklöð i Forsælu - did not match any documents.

Suggestions:

Make sure all words are spelled correctly.

Try different keywords.

Try more general keywords.

Try fewer keywords.

If you don't count the UK's shutdown of the old 405-line VHF B&W system in January, 1985.

Israel was the last major country to switch to full time color broadcasts in 1983, not surprising since they didn't start regular TV broadcasts until 1968(!).

A couple of notes: WBZ was primary NBC and WNAC was primary CBS and secondary ABC and DuMont, but both ABC and DuMont programming appeared on WBZ due to deals with networks and sponsors.

I have done my best to match shows to networks, and show time shifts. If anyone has any more info or corrections on any of this it would be welcomed.

A few notes:

(1) I'm pretty sure the "Sunday News Special" at 11 P.M. on WNHC-6 New Haven was actually produced by CBS News, and from 1951 until 1962 was anchored by a young Walter Cronkite.

(2) "Prince Television Theatre" was likely sponsored by the pasta manufacturer of the same name, which at the time was based in the Boston area (Lowell??). Prince gained national notoriety in the 1970's for a spaghetti commercial where a North End (of Boston) mother has finished making spaghetti and called out for her son "An-thony! An-thony!!" (I suspect this spot is somewhere on You Tube).

(3) While "Big Picture" did appear on ABC during this period, I believe it was also simultaneously syndicated to local TV stations (the show would remain in first-run syndication into the 1970's, when anti-Vietnam sentiment finally killed it), so while WBZ-4 had a secondary affiliation with ABC at the time, the show may have been from a film print broadcast from the WBZ studios.

(4) I'm not 100% sure, but I thought the episodes of "Colgate Comedy Hour" co-hosted by Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis (once monthly??) were generally the only times "Colgate" out-drew Ed Sullivan in the ratings. Who knew when Dean and Jerry went their separate ways in the mid-1950's that both of them would become much bigger stars as "singles" than they ever were as a team??

Because Wednesday is Prince Spaghetti Day.

With so many shows time shifted did the stations do their own kinescopes or did the networks send kinescopes or films (in the case of filmed shows)?

Frontiers of Faith, American Forum Of The Air and Youth Wants to Know are all NBC Public Affairs Shows..

To answer Maureen Carney's question, where kinescopes were made depended on how soon the program was aired after the network fed it.

If network programs were shown by either WBZ-4 or WNAC-7 within a couple of days after their live network broadcast, the stations themselves probably made the kinescope.

If the delay was longer than that, the network probably made the kinescope and air-shipped it to Boston.

For programs on film, they'd be produced enough in advance that they could be shipped to a station for broadcast the same day as the rest of the network (for affiliates not yet connected to network lines in the early 1950's), or after the show appeared on the rest of the network (for "interconnected" affiliates).

12:30p Back Porch Experts – J. O'Leary

Hi : ) Does anyone have any suggestions as to how I might learn more about this show (BACK PORCH EXPERTS), and if any footage from it is stored anywhere? As a child, my mother was a guest panelist on it twice, some time in the late 1940's or early 50's...

It would be interesting to know more about what years the show ran, etc. Apparently the host would gather a small group of people in a studio, and asked their opinion on various current events. I don't know if the panel was usually grownups, and only occasionally (or always?) children who were the guests, but it would be neat to know more.

Any information or leads anyone has as to researching this show would be appreciated : )

Thanks!

29 KIRO J.T. (? Christmas Special?)

Sure is, here's IMDb's description:

J. T. Gamble, a shy, withdrawn Harlem youngster, shows compassion and responsibility when he takes on the care of an old, one-eyed, badly injured alley cat days before Christmas and secretly nurses it back to health.

<http://www.imdb.com/title/tt0158681/>

It first aired in 1969 on the CBS Children's Hour.

Looks like KNDO/KNDU pre-empted part of the NBC network schedule to clear (likely repeats) Wheel and Jeopardy.

Eerie, Indiana/Torkelsons was probably aired as filler for the prime time hours on the West Coast (the 6pm basketball game would have been a 9pm East/8pm Central start).

Thanks. CBS has aired many specials/movies on Xmas morning over the years. Many years ago they ran "The Rugrats Movie" in what would have been the soap opera slots.

Looks familiar. I was living in Pittsburgh in a house with no cable at the time.

This must have been after WQEX started simulcasting WQED in anticipation of a sale that would take years to consummate. But before WPGH began trying to produce a newscast (they used to run a movie at 10PM)

My kids were young at the time. I came to know that WQED schedule like the back of my hand.

No listings for channel 22?

This is the schedule for that day. The scanned paper was a little bit damaged, so I couldn't read well a few names.

Too bad I asked. That WPTT schedule was bad. Very non-competitive—not the programming, but rather in their arrangement.

It says something about your station if part of the Disney Afternoon is airing on the Group W-owned, VHF CBS affiliate AGAINST YOU in your market.

This was more likely charismatic faith healer Benny Hinn, not comedian Benny Hill (especially given the time slot).

I was able to read the listings more clearly and I saw it is indeed Benny Hinn at noon on WPTT.

Benny Hill did air in Pittsburgh, but at 11pm on WQEX (16): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MK6TXMsvgQg>

I believe that at the time WPTT was under the "ownership" of Eddie Edwards, a radio station owner who had once been a newscaster on this station.

I put "ownership" in quotes because it was a ruse for Sinclair to get around ownership rules in effect at the time. The former owners of WPTT sold to Edwards, who was a minority owner. He ran all-home shopping for awhile, and then began a leased-time arrangement with Sinclair.

I believe this schedule is made of spillover programs from their other station, WPGH.

And the former owner of WPTT was...surprise, surprise – Sinclair.

It says something about your station if part of the Disney Afternoon is airing on the Group W-owned, VHF CBS affiliate AGAINST YOU in your market.

Indeed. I imagine that Disney couldn't have been too happy about their shows airing in morning time slots in a big market like Pittsburgh. They really should have been on WPTT in the afternoon.

Yes, that's my account.

The tape starts with two episodes of Strange Luck (the WFXR one), then cuts to the afternoon shows, starting with Batman the Animated Series (4PM ET). After that was Goosebumps, Step by Step, Funniest Home Videos, Simpsons, Mama's Family and Star Trek: The Next Generation, followed by that night's Fox shows (I believe it was a double-run of the X-Files).

That 2/15/99 tape (from KDAF) begins about 1/3 of the way through Boy Meets World, through all of the sitcoms, WB shows, the newscast, and then more sitcoms, Change of Heart and Love Connection, ending around 10 min into Forgive or Forget. It is a COMPLETE 5P-1A aircheck from that day...and very rare footage. Someone just left the tape running on one certain station until the tape ran out!

Yes, that's my account.

The tape starts with two episodes of Strange Luck (the WFXR one), then cuts to the afternoon shows, starting with Batman the Animated Series (4PM ET). After that was Goosebumps, Step by Step, Funniest Home Videos, Simpsons, Mama's Family and Star Trek: The Next Generation, followed by that night's Fox shows (I believe it was a double-run of the X-Files).

That 2/15/99 tape (from KDAF) begins about 1/3 of the way through Boy Meets World, through all of the sitcoms, WB shows, the newscast, and then more sitcoms, Change of Heart and Love Connection, ending around 10 min into Forgive or Forget. It is a COMPLETE 5P-1A aircheck from that day...and very rare footage. Someone just left the tape running on one certain station until the tape ran out!

-crainbebo

I've seen people do that with some of the tapes I've acquired secondhand throughout the last few years. One tape I have is an 8PM-2AM aircheck of WOKR (now WHAM) in Rochester on July 5-6, 2000. Starts with most of an ABC movie presentation of Con Air, then continues with an episode of Whose Line Is It Anyway, News Source 13 at 11:00, Nightline, Politically Incorrect with Bill Maher, two infomercials, and half of an episode of The Roseanne Show.

I also have a tape that's a 10PM-4AM aircheck of WCPO in Cincinnati on May 25-26, 2005. Has an episode of Alias, 9 News at 11, Nightline, Jimmy Kimmel Live, Inside Edition, an episode of Oprah (rerun from earlier that day), and 90 minutes of ABC World News Now.

Okay, so you mean it was this?

The WOKR lineup seems about right. The WCPO lineup, however, is not. I'm not sure what was on at 8PM on 5/25/2005, but the season finale of Lost was on at 9PM that night (WWTBAM had moved entirely to syndication by that point). And Alias would have been on at 10PM. Speaking of Lost, that night's Jimmy Kimmel Live featured J.J. Abrams and the cast of that show as guests in commemoration of the finale of season one.

As far as WOKR, World News Now likely would have followed The Roseanne Show at 2:35 AM.

All right, here it is, and I've also corrected WCPO's schedule from May 25, 2005.
